

What Sikhs Believe

Use the link below to fill out the 5 K's sheet
<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/clips/zcn34wx>

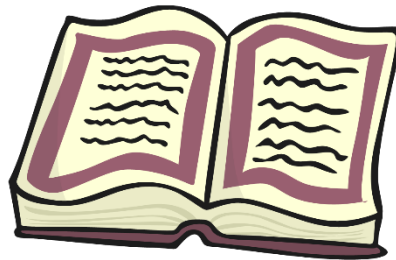

Sikhs believe that there is only one God. They only worship and pray to the one God.

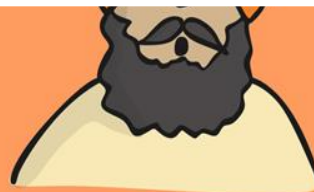

They believe that different religions are all paths to the same God. All humans are children of the same God.

Everyone is equal in God's eyes everyone should be treated equally.

A stylized illustration of a red and white patterned scarf, featuring a central circular motif and a border of small white stars. The scarf is draped over a white surface.

A cartoon-style illustration of a man with a long white beard and a yellow turban. He is wearing a green robe over a yellow shirt. He is holding a string of beads in his right hand, which is raised towards his face. The background is a solid orange color.

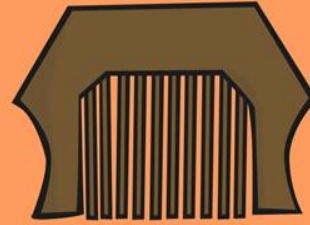

Sikhs believe they should follow the four commands

1. Do not dishonour the creator's intention by cutting your hair.
2. Do not harm the body with tobacco or other intoxicants.
3. Do not eat sacrificial meat.
4. Do not commit adultery.

A cartoon illustration of a Sikh man with a long white beard and a yellow turban. He is wearing a green robe over a yellow shirt and is holding a string of prayer beads (mala) in his right hand. The background is white with a yellow border.

- Sikhs believe they should follow the four commands
1. Do not dishonour the creator's intention by cutting your hair.
 2. Do not harm the body with tobacco or other intoxicants.
 3. Do not eat sacrificial meat.
 4. Do not commit adultery.
-
- A cartoon illustration of a Sikh man with a long white beard and a yellow turban. He is wearing a green robe over a yellow shirt and is holding a string of prayer beads (mala) in his right hand. The background is white with a yellow border.

The End

