

A classroom in France

Hi guys!

I have found a short video for you to watch which is all about a classroom in France!!

Here are a few things for you to think about.

1. Can you make a list of all the vocabulary used in the video?

If you can, make a table of the differences between school in England and school in France.

In England...	In France...
School day starts around 9am.	School day starts around 8am.
